

WHAT IS THE DUTCH REFUGEE COUNCIL DOING FOR UKRAINIAN REFUGEES?

What is the Dutch Refugee Council doing for Ukrainian refugees?

Many refugees come to the Netherlands because of the war in Ukraine. The Dutch Refugee Council (VluchtelingenWerk Nederland) helps them on their way. We do this in all municipalities. In this leaflet you can read more about what the Dutch Refugee Council can do for you.

Who we are

The Dutch Refugee Council is a human rights organisation. Together with many volunteers and professionals, we devote ourselves to the interests and protection of asylum seekers and refugees in the Netherlands. We are independent and not affiliated with the government. We are available at shelters or at drop-in sessions in the vicinity of the shelter.

What we do

- Our employees will give you a warm welcome to the Netherlands.
- At the shelter, we give you information on practical matters such as registering with the municipality, opening a bank account and accessing healthcare.
- We provide information about the Temporary Protection Order for Ukrainians and the asylum procedure. We discuss your legal situation and inform you about the possibilities of applying for asylum.
- Do you want to talk about your situation? Come along to a drop-in session or make an appointment for a personal meeting.
- Our employees collaborate with other organisations available at the shelter, such as municipalities, Takecarebnb, Red Cross and Salvation Army;
- The Dutch Refugee Council is not a refugee shelter organisation and does not offer shelter.
